CHRISTOPHER SANTOLERI, OF THE SAFEGARD GROUP, INC., CERTIFIED AS CONSTRUCTION RISK AND INSURANCE SPECIALIST

Media, PA—The Safeguard Group is pleased to announce Christopher Santoleri has been certified as a Construction Risk and Insurance Specialist (CRIS). This insurance designation recognizes specialized expertise in construction insurance, and establishes one’s commitment to the construction industry through an on-going continuing education component focusing on construction risk and insurance.

“The CRIS program has helped us show our construction clients and prospects that we understand contractors’ most important insurance needs,” said William C. Donato, Jr., President & COO. “Chris has further strengthened our firm with the specialized knowledge necessary to provide superior risk management and insurance advice and service to our construction clients.”

The CRIS continuing education program is a specialized curriculum consisting of five courses presented entirely online. Only those who complete these courses and maintain their knowledge with an ongoing continuing education program are entitled to display the CRIS designation to certify their knowledge of construction insurance. For more information about the CRIS continuing education program and designation, visit www.CRIS-CE.com.
